THE GRASS HARP

This is a story about people in search of love. They defy the narrow conventions of a small town in order to find their own brand of freedom, enjoy momentary heady release, and then make their individual compromises with reality.

"A charming human warmth pervades these pages, a feeling for the positive quality of life, despite life's abiding sadness. . . ."

—New York Herald Tribune

A TREE OF NIGHT and other stories

Truman Capote explores the misery, horror and loneliness of modern life in these stories of the weird, the abnormal and the supernatural. Two of these tales, "Miriam" and "Shut A Final Door," have won O. Henry awards.

"Truman Capote stands out as a master of fear and the borderland between sanity and the neurotic wastes of the mind . . . the writing is unobtrusively beautiful . . . a superlative book."

—The Washington Post
