Haunting tales of unseen terrors

TANDEM

Tandem Horror 3

The raw material of horror is everyday life. Few of us would admit to being frightened by the age-old clanking of the fettered ghost—but what made the window curtains shiver on a windless night?

And the face in the mirror; you see it several times a day, and it smiles when you smile, and frowns when you frown—but if one day it remained expressionless, whose reflection would it be?

Another collection of spine-creeping tales to follow Tandem Horror 2.
