

75¢ • SC170 • A BANTAM CLASSIC

Classical German Drama

NATHAN THE WISE / LESSING

EGMONT / GOETHE

MARY STUART / SCHILLER

THE PRINCE OF HOMBURG / KLEIST

DANTON'S DEATH / BÜCHNER

TRANSLATED BY THEODORE H. LUSTIG AND
WITH AN INTRODUCTION BY VICTOR LANGE

THE LIBRARY OF WORLD DRAMA

JOHN GASSNER, GENERAL EDITOR

FIVE GREAT PLAYS FROM THE GERMAN THEATRE

NATHAN THE WISE The spirited drama in which Lessing gave direct and elevated expression to the ideals of religious tolerance

EGMONT Goethe's splendid depiction of a noble revolutionary whose unworldliness frustrates his lofty dreams of freedom

MARY STUART Schiller's dramatization of the historic clash of two strong-willed women—Elizabeth I and Mary Queen of Scots

THE PRINCE OF HOMBURG The shattering effect of a decreed execution upon a brave young Prussian officer

DANTON'S DEATH The breathless pace of the French Revolution and its hero-victims, Danton and Robespierre, caught in the swirl of unleashed revolution

The Library of World Drama presents these outstanding dramatic works in vivid new translations.

Contingent
Vienna 63