

OH! CALCUTTA!

AN ENTERTAINMENT WITH MUSIC
DEvised BY KENNETH TYNAN
DIRECTED BY JACQUES LEVY

BC-L-Tyn

OH! CALCUTTA! premièred at the Eden Theatre in New York City on June 17, 1969, after thirty-nine preview performances. It was produced by Hillard Elkins in association with Michael White and Gordon Crowe, and was an E.P.I.C. Production. Music and lyrics were by The Open Window; choreography by Margo Sappington; sets by James Tilton; lighting by David Segal; costumes by Fred Voelpel; projected media designed by Gardner Compton and Emile Ardolino; production supervisor, Michael Thoma; associate producer, George Platt. It was devised by Kenneth Tynan and conceived and directed by Jacques Levy, with the following cast:

Raina Barrett, Mark Dempsey, Katie Drew-Wilkinson, Boni Enten, Bill Macy, Alan Rachins, Leon Russom, Margo Sappington, Nancy Tribush, George Welbes, and The Open Window (Robert Dennis, Peter Schickelle, and Stanley Walden.)

Photographs from the New York production are by Friedman-Abeles.

White
Paris